

Blind Service Association

2010 LIGHTS OF LOVE and REMEMBRANCE

| Donor             | Lights of Love and Remembrance                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|--------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Albert Anderson          | Two white lights in memory of Dorothy Hilson and Gorman Hilson                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Carolyn Austin           | One white light in memory of Junius C. Austin Jr.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Diana E. Banducci        | Two white lights in memory of Jerry Skolnick and Little Gary                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Elaine & George Beatovic | One white light in memory of Deceased Family and Friends                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Doris Berry              | One colored light in honor of Bill KaimenOne white light in memory of Dick Wesley                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Benita Black             | Six colored lights in honor of Sally Cooper, Beth Finke, Debbie Grossman, Elsie Haug, Hanni Knezovich and Mary Scully                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Kay Boehme               | Eighteen colored lights in honor of Molly Baker, Mr. & Mrs. John Biggins, Keith Boehme, Mr.& Mrs. Carl Ghiessonsusen, Dottie Gibson, Mark Green, Grace & Dave Kennedy, Karen & Jim La Hann, Carmen Larroca, Marshall Marcus, Carla Mertins, Mr.& Mrs. Ed Miller, Lenore Murphy, Ada Novak, Martha Pedrosa, Elizabeth Price, Bill & Randy Steckling |
| Hanna Bratman            | Five colored lights in honor of BSA Staff, Bob Doepp, Ted Gertz, Debbie Grossman and Mary ScullyOne white light in memory of Eugene Bratman                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Haskal Brociner          | One white light in memory of Beti Brociner                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Cindy Brown              | Four colored lights in honor of Doug Bunker, Teresa Gale, Cher Keachie and Ada NovakTwo White lights in memory of Bette Kalichman                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Mary Casey               | One white light in memory of Kathy Casey                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Sam Clair                | One colored light in honor of BSA                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Maria Czyzyk             | One colored light in honor of Judie Roberts                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Felix Dicosola           | One white light in memory of Mary Dicosola                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Ellen Dietz              | Two white lights in memory of Rosalind Glenner and Dorothy Patrick                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Mary Dina                | Two colored lights in honor of Pam Berman and Cabrillo (Brio)One White light in memory of Irene Rich                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Cecelia Drodz            | One white light in memory of Stanley Drodz                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |

| Donor               | Lights of Love and Remembrance                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|----------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Richard Eastline           | Two white lights in memory of Florence Belvedere and Anne Hingst                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Seymour & Bella Ehrenpreis | Six colored lights in honor of BSA and the wonderful time in my life when I was able to serve BSA                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| J.A. Fellows               | Eleven White lights in memory of Florine Anderson, Alleare Baker, Alice Fellows, Ollis W. Fellows, Sisley Johnson, Charles Mosley, Horace Mosley and Walter Mosley                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Solway F. Firestone        | Twelve white lights in memory of Jesse Firestone and Elmer Gertz                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Pearl Friedman             | Two white lights in memory of Dr. Alvin Busch                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Mr. & Mrs. Roger R. Fross  | Six colored lights in honor of Gail Connerty                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Rosalie Garber             | Three white lights in memory of Edward D. Garber                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Tanya Gesse                | Four colored lights in honor of Sally Cooper, Igor Gesse, Vera Gesse and Debbie GrossmanTwo white lights in memory of Natalia Gesse and Antonina Gromova                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Dottie Gibson              | One colored light in honor of Wayne GibsonOne white light in memory of David Zieff                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Teresita Glindro           | Five colored lights in honor of Elaine Addis, Rev. Wenceslaus Church, Dolly Pamittan, Dorothy Schnadig and Rev. Michael ShanahanOne white light in memory of Deceased Members of the Glindro Family                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Nancy L Green              | Three white lights in memory of Irma B. Green                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Janet Gross                | One White light in memory of Eileen Gross                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Debbie Grossman            | Six white lights in memory of Bill Eilberg, Linda Feldman, Abe Grossman, Dolly Grossman, Mark Porges and Lena Satenstein                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Judy Grossman              | Six white lights in memory of Bill Eilberg, Linda Feldman, Abe Grossman, Dolly Grossman, Frances Noll and Mark Porges                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Mavis Harris               | Five white lights in memory of Francis Goldblatt, Nathan Goldblatt, Sheldon Harris and Nancy Kane                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Dr. Elsie Haug             | Seven colored lights in honor of BSA Board of Directors, BSA Staff, Benita Black, Mina Cory, Mrs. F. J. Haug, Eileen Meyer and Christine MontetEleven white lights in memory of Scott Cory, Dr. Robert K. Dean, Lawrence Gold, Anne Rae Gold, Frederick J. Haug, Bertha Haug, Irving Rector Frank Reichelderfer, Dr. Arthur Reinitz, Jerry Skolnick and Dustin Vallaly |
| Mr. & Mrs. Rudolf Hempel   | Two colored lights in honor of Margaret & Arno Hempel                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Robert Howe                | Six white lights in memory of Lewis H. Davis                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |

| Donor               | Lights of Love and Remembrance                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|----------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Terry Jacobson Spinks      | One colored light in honor of Ann JacobsonOne white light in memory of Marvin Jacobson                                                                                                                                           |
| Nancy & Larry Jeckel       | Thirteen colored lights in honor of Sally Cooper, Dee Dee Doherty, Debbie Grossman, Ann Lousin, Marshall Marcus, Lori Nienke, Rich Novak, Brian Oleszczuk, Andrew Pulaski, Karine Rosvold, Bud Shapiro, Dan Starkman and Ed Starkman |
| Joan Rave Juris            | Three colored lights in honor of Michael Murphy and Nadine WalshThree white lights in memory of Diane Bruzas, Alice Lutke and Rich Mohorek                                                                                       |
| Roberta Karper             | One colored light in honor of Roy GranbergOne white light in memory of Joseph Arnove                                                                                                                                             |
| Catherine Klein            | Two colored lights in honor of Bernie Pilchen and Mary Schiltz                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Mary Konstant              | Two white lights in memory of John B. Goetz                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Joan Kosinski              | Ten white lights in memory of Leonard Borkowski, Leona Hart, Steven Kaluzny, I. George Kosinski, Jean Skuta and Louis Skwareil                                                                                                       |
| Richard & Georjean Lentfer | Three colored lights in honor of Lukas Osborne, Melissa Taussig, and Delores VanderwagenThree white lights in memory of Jeanne Aggen, Wini Aggen, and Siebern Vanderwagen Jr.                                                    |
| Stelle Lewandowski         | Six colored lights in honor of Benjamin Lewandowski, Vera Lewandowski, Maria Nykiel and Theodore Nykiel                                                                                                                              |
| Mr. & Mrs. Sherwin Marks   | Six white lights in memory of Frances Allans, Gertrude Grow, William Grow, Dorothy Marks, Morris Marks and Marion Wasson                                                                                                             |
| Marcey McAllister          | Six white lights in memory of Lt. Col. Jack Cahill, Louis Kerchner, Marie Kerchner, John G. McAllister, Jeanne McAllister and Ella Saunders                                                                                          |
| Rita McCabe                | One white light in memory of Tim Deeps Branick                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Eileen McNulty             | One colored light in honor of Alice MurphyFive white lights in memory of Maureen McConville, Charles McNulty, Jim McNulty, Mary McNulty and Maureen McNulty                                                                      |
| Will McNulty               | Six white lights in memory of Doug Diggs, Gregory Kobus, Sarah Williams-Martin, and Dave Wilson                                                                                                                                      |
| Muriel Meyer               | Six white lights in memory of Carolyn Gross, Morton Gross and Stuart Meyer                                                                                                                                                           |
| Elaine Miller              | Two white lights in memory of Dorothy Patrick and Meyer Patrick                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Don Morrow                 | Six white lights in memory of Marvin Hoogland                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Alice Murphy               | Three colored lights in honor of Carmel Goosby, Eileen McNulty and Sydelle Reeves                                                                                                                                                    |

| Donor             | Lights of Love and Remembrance                                                                                                                                                     |
|--------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Marion Musacchio         | One white light in memory of Joseph Musacchio                                                                                                                                             |
| Marlene D. Ordakowski    | Seven white lights in memory of Mary Ordakowski and Walter Ordakowski                                                                                                                     |
| Ruth Paul                | Twelve colored lights in honor of Harold Paul and Tim Paul                                                                                                                                |
| Bobbie & Bill Percival   | Five colored lights in honor of Patty Malone, Bill Percival, William J. Percival, Maureen Plain and Agnes VartabedianOne white light in memory of Fran Richardson                     |
| Greg Polman              | Four colored lights in honor of Dana Hagardty, Ron Jerak, Dorothy Polman and Duane PolmanTwo white lights in memory of Blaze and Jackson                                              |
| Jennifer Pomaranski      | Three white lights in memory of Debbie Berger, Walter Pomaranski and Ruben Rosso                                                                                                          |
| Vilma & Fred Porges      | Three white lights in memory of Dolly Grossman, Roz Krupp and Mark Porges                                                                                                                 |
| Elizabeth Price          | Eight colored lights in honor of Kay Boehme, Sally Cooper, Debbie Grossman, Michael Moore, Gwen Nelson, Ted Price and Dorothy W. WhitakerOne white light in memory of Thomas E. Price |
| Michael S. Reeves        | Six colored lights in honor of Rev. Kathy Reeves                                                                                                                                          |
| James Reynolds           | One white light in memory of Penny Lily                                                                                                                                                   |
| Brendan Riley            | Twelve colored lights in honor of Ann & William Riley                                                                                                                                     |
| Judy Roth                | Four colored lights in honor of Kaela & Kelly RoweTwo white lights in memory of Morry Roth                                                                                            |
| Earl & Joan Sanders      | Six white lights in memory of John Bozeman, Pearl M. Bozeman, Louise Mitchell, Ernest Sanders, Mary Jane Stamps and Cynthia Taylor                                                        |
| Doris Sayed-Ahmed        | Four colored lights in honor of Sally Cooper, Debbie Grossman, Art Shapiro and Buddy ShapiroTwo white lights in memory of George Donaldson and Jerry Skolnick                         |
| Arthur Schutz            | One colored light in honor of Mary ScullyOne white light in memory of Judi Jasek                                                                                                      |
| Vileen Shah              | Two colored lights in honor of Richard Nowak and Walter Wesley                                                                                                                            |
| Dorothy & Edward Shapiro | Six white lights in memory of Suzanne Shapiro Anderson                                                                                                                                    |
| Dorothy Shrago           | One white light in memory of My Loved Ones                                                                                                                                                |
| Chuck Slavick            | Two colored lights in honor of Mel Carlson and Harry WestmorelandOne White light in memory Aurelia Boston                                                                             |

| Donor            | Lights of Love and Remembrance                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|-------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Shirlee Spector         | Eight colored lights in honor of Wilma Feldman, Zini Lardieri, Eileen Ryan, Hugh Spector, Randy Spector, Scott Spector, Steven Spector and Susan StickleyTen white lights in memory of Annette Bell, Selma Bernstein, Goldie Heller, Samuel Heller, Harriet Michels, Sylvia Motel, Abe Spector, Pearl Spector, Robert Spector and Saul Spector |
| Jean Spencer            | Two white lights in memory of Michael Dieisch and Ben Novack                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Genevieve Stiak         | Four colored lights in honor of Diane Calhoun, John Stiak, Tom Stiak and Ted WroblewskiThree white lights in memory of James Staik, Judy Stiak and Louis Stiak                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Ruth Szantay            | One white light in memory of Jerry Skolnick                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Linda Tannen            | Four white lights in memory of Vivian Moran                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Joan Taylor             | Six colored lights in honor of George Taylor and Hazel Taylor                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Pat Trakas              | One colored light in honor of Linda Schwartz                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Marcia Trawinski        | Twelve white lights in memory of Emily Brczyski, Antonette Hejnal, Peter Kosinski, Mary Kosinski, John Kosinski, Ann Muszynski, Alexander Trawinski, Helen Trawinski, Leon Trawinski Jr., Leon Trawinski Sr., Lillian Trawinski and Rose Trawinski                                                                                                 |
| Jean Unsworth           | Three colored lights in honor of Donald G. Morrow, Dolores Rapoport and Allen WestThree white lights in memory of Marie Morman, Dwight Reid Eastman and Tim Unsworth                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Steven Vatch            | Two white lights in memory of Mary J. Vatch and Steven J. Vatch Sr.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Linda K. Wallace        | Three colored lights in honor of Gary Forell, John Wallace Talifarro and RalphThree White lights in memory of Sean Eckart, Modella Smith Wallace and Margaret & Elmer Wallace                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Lisa Warshauer          | Six colored lights in honor Trudy Kunik, Bob Schall, Shirley Schnackenberg, Dave Taussig, Margie Tinerella and Glorye Wool,                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Marcine & Arthur Weiner | Two colored lights in honor Laura Weiner and Melissa Weiner                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Joseph Wielebnowski     | Two white lights in memory of Genevieve Wielebnowski and Joseph Wielebnowski Sr.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Consuelo Williams       | Six white lights in memory of Leroy Brown, Alyce Jackson, Ellen Jones, Mary Jane Stamps, Bettie Anne Wilkes and Donald C. Williams                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Mrs. Ethel Williams     | Six white lights in memory of John Allen, Otis Allen, Leroy Hooks, Beulah Howard, Mary Toliver and Allan Williams                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Lyn Williamson          | One white light in memory of Stephen Miyagwa                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Rebecca Yerak           | Two colored lights in honor of Ray Yerak and Reggie Yerak                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |

Donor*Lights of Love and Remembrance

---

Lorraine Zubrycky

Three colored lights in honor of Dr. Gary Barnas, Marilyn Bartolotte and Mary T. Papinko

Three white lights in memory of Amelia Crowhurst, Howard Crowhurst and Joseph Zubrycky

Blind Service Association

2010 Lights of Love and Remembrance

In addition to those who lit lights of Love and Remembrance, we would like to thank our friends who gave generously during the Holiday Season:

*****

Anonymous, Mary Abramson, Kathleen Alekno, Mrs. Ralph Allen, Joan Gagan Anderson, Karen Antine, Elise Auerbach, Joan Bellows, Mr. & Mrs. Isaak Bilinkis, Harvey Borisof, Jennifer Brogan, Marcia Browning, Joseph Burns, Harold Burns, John Cannon, Mr. & Mrs. Richard Chaney, Mr. & Mrs. Robert Close, Cindy Colon, Rosalie Cooper, Barbara Crump, Mary R. Danner, Mark R. Davis, Esther Deloach, Omar Demir, Natasha Deutsch, Mr. & Mrs. John Donahue, George Douglas, Daniel Dwyer, Mr. & Mrs. Gerald Eisenstein, Gary Elden & Phyllis Mandler, Mr. & Mrs. Arnold Freedman, Susan Freehling, Dr. & Mrs. Marcel Frenkel, Mr. & Mrs. Bernard Fried, Jean Fuhrman, Leona C. Gasiorowski, Tanya Gesse, Hon. & Mrs. Robert Gettleman, Mary Ginther, Frank Gliva, Lydia Grady, Roy C. Granberg, Wilmette Gray, Mr. & Mrs. Alfejs Grikmanis, Norma Haas, Dr. John Halderman, Alan Hammerman, Dr. Elsie Haug, Philip Heil, Shirlee Hoffman, Mr. Bernard Hoffman, Judith Hoppe, Karen Horan, Steven Howard, Humenansky Family Foundation, Adeline Ignarski, Elaine Johnson, Robert K. Johnston, Karen Kalichman, Hattie Kaplan, Mr. & Mrs. Lawrence Kaufman, Andrea Kelton, Mr. & Mrs. Mark Kinsella, Helen Knapp, Claire Kole, Nancy Kolos, Mr. & Mrs. Lawrence Konn, Alletta Kovalchik, Lynne Lee, Mr. & Mrs. Lawrence Lewis, Ely Lionheart, Mr. & Mrs. Albert Lockett, Mr. & Mrs. Thomas Loftus, Mr. & Mrs. Robert London, Garland Lonzo, David Madigan, Mr. & Mrs. Joseph Manfreda, Mr. & Mrs. Harold Margolis, Mark Martinson, Mr. & Mrs. Thomas Mazukelli, JoAnne McDonald, Mr. & Mrs. Robert McLaughlin, William G. McNulty, Mr. & Mrs. Robert Mercier, Barbara Miller, Mr. & Mrs. Morton Mollner, Mr. & Mrs. Edward Nadler, Cora Nawracaj, Janet Neiman, Gwendolyn Nelson, Mr. & Mrs. William Noelle, Alberta O'Shaughnessy, Bernice Pacholski, Carmen Pappas, Suzanne Pattou, Dr. & Mrs. Harold Paul, Amy Pellettiere, Robert Powell, Michael Reeves, Leonard Ridker, Paul Rink, Carolyn Ritten, Mr. & Mrs. Warner Rosenthal, Mr. & Mrs. John Rossi, Joan Rulland, Mr. & Mrs. John P. Ryan, Jean Sachs, Mr. & Mrs. Richard A. Samuels, Dr. & Mrs. William Schey, Edward Schumann, Mr. & Mrs. Charles Schwartz, Mr. & Mrs. Steven Schwartz, Clifford H. Scott-Rudnick, Francine Scully, Lawrence Sherman, Grace Shertoll, Steven Sklar, Adam Slotkowski, Thomasina Smith, Helen R. Smith, Brian Bonnett -Sunrise Transportation, Kelly Solaksubasi, Phyllis Sommers Akos, Masan & Machiyo Tanikawa, Jaki Tata, Don Tenbrunsel, Mr. & Mrs. John Togtman, Virginia Townsend, Ms. Rebecca Tuohy, Beth Ukleja, Jean Morman Unsworth, Mr. & Mrs. Michael Urbut, Dainius K Valiukenas, Patricia Ward, Adelaide Weinstein, Ingrid Weiterschan, Joseph Wielebnowski, Cyrilla Williams, Mr. & Mrs. Andrew S. Williams, Eddie Williams, Lucille Wright, Mr. & Mrs. Lou Zucaro, BSA A.M. Weight Loss Group

*****